Biography

Mohit Dobhal can be scaled from being a lover of art to a splendid human being. With an exceptionally enchanting voice which will revive your senses. He has the freshness of a dewdrop in his tunes. His quick realisation for the interest in music at the age of 8 was a boon for his career, and after playing keyboard for 2 years he took up vocals following the footsteps of his grandfather who himself was an AIR artist
(Shri Parashuram Dobhal).

2012 - Award by Ex-Chief Minister of Delhi - Smt. Shiela Dixit.

The literary achievements in music include his specialisation in Hindustani Classical (Vocal) music from the Gandharva Mahavidyalaya New Delhi. Apart from that, he is adept at playing several instruments. Being bestowed with several state, national & International awards, his zeal is boosted up to give a richer quality of music to his audience. His professional work experience in the field of music spans across 15 years.
